

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus April 2018

Sunday – 1

Happy Easter, dear Friends! Let us pray that many new listeners will hear about the resurrection of Jesus Christ and accept Him as their personal Savior.

Monday – 2

Please pray for Ulanbek, national executive director for FEBC's ministry in Kyrgyzstan, as he is traveling with a group of international guests in Central Asia. We depend on good partnerships in our ministry.

Tuesday – 3

Please pray for many women in Central Asia who regularly experience domestic abuse. We offer special broadcasts on that topic and hope to be of help to many. Actually, we know that our broadcasts have had a positive impact on abusers themselves. Of course, our desire is that they all come to Christ for forgiveness and rehabilitation.

Wednesday – 4

Please pray for Boris from Slavyansk, Ukraine. He was often a guest in our Slavyansk studio. Now he is recovering after having two heart attacks. Pray for God's healing. Also, pray for salvation of his children.

Thursday – 5

"I am not a Christian but I like to listen to your broadcasts on the Internet. Your programs helped me many times in my life. Thank you! Now I need your advice again. My wife is pregnant, but my mother wants her to have an abortion." Uri from Moscow. Please pray for this family, especially for the pregnant woman. Pray that this baby will be born and the entire family will serve the Lord.

Friday – 6

Please pray for Vladimir Savenkov, our missionary in Ukraine. He and his wife became foster and adoptive parents to six children. Vladimir also serves children who live in orphanages. Sometimes they have an opportunity to listen to FEBC broadcasts. Pray for salvation of these children.

Saturday – 7

We have begun working with dozens of potential evangelists, which is a challenging process. We want all our volunteers to be able to truly minister to people and draw them to Jesus. Please pray for these efforts.

Sunday – 8

Oleg Cherny, FEBC engineer and administrator, asked us to pray for his father. “My dad is the most optimistic, joyful person I know,” says Oleg. He is full of faith and joy even now, as he goes through his cancer treatments. He is right in the middle of his chemotherapy course now; please pray for him and my mom.”

Monday – 9

Please pray for Dmitry Ignatenko, FEBC volunteer from Ukraine. He has co-hosted dozens of our programs, and is happy to tell listeners why entrusting his life to Christ ten years ago was the best decision he ever made. God has gifted Dmitry in a special way, so he can relate to his fellow Ukrainians and draw them to the saving faith of Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 10

Dear friends, please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially, so we can continue to preach the Gospel to our listeners in Russia and Ukraine who need salvation through Jesus Christ. Thank you very much for your prayers and financial support!

Wednesday – 11

Svetlana Sarapulova is working with her husband, Evgene Sarapulov; his daily program receives the largest number of responses. They live in Moscow and have four children. Please pray for this family.

Thursday – 12

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I listen to regularly on the Internet. I am not a Christian, but I like to listen to you because your programs encourage me and help me to make good decisions. I would like to ask you to pray for my daughter. She is only 13, but she thinks about suicide all the time. Just recently, she argued with her friend and tried to commit suicide; she tried to cut her veins. Please pray that God will help us and heal my daughter’s mind.” Tatiana from Moscow.

Friday – 13

Natalia Bradarskaya has been counseling FEBC listeners for more than three years now. Natalia is the widow of Victor, who became a martyr for Christ in Eastern Ukraine three years ago. Please pray for Natalia and her three children.

Saturday – 14

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts and prayers! Please pray for my brother who became ill and needs God’s healing. He is a very kind person and he has helped many people in their needs. He believes that God will heal him and restore his life.” Ludmila from Ukraine.

Sunday – 15

Please pray for Alex Pastushak from Chernivtsy, Ukraine. Alex has several years of experience evangelizing people online. He led many to Jesus by corresponding with them and connecting them to a local fellowship of believers throughout Russia and Ukraine. Alex graduated from a university and seminary in Kiev.

Monday – 16

Please pray for pastor Andrey from Slavyansk, Ukraine, who participates in FEBC broadcasts in this city. He is scheduled to have back surgery. Please pray for a successful operation and recovery.

Tuesday – 17

“My wife wants to leave me. I know this is my fault. I was raised in an orphanage and always had problems in my life. Recently I began to listen to your broadcasts and I try to follow your advice. Please pray that God will help me save my family.”
Rustam from St. Petersburg.

Wednesday – 18

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director, as he travels a lot due to ministry responsibilities. Oleg is the most experienced engineer in FEBC’s post-Soviet countries. He equips new stations, develops new media tools such as smart phone apps, and lends his voice to multiple radio projects.

Thursday – 19

“Because of your broadcasts, I became a Christian. There were many problems in my family but I did not give up. I was listening to your programs and I followed your advice. I prayed and believed. Now, after three years many things have changed and I continue to become better and better. I thank God that you exist and help people come to know the Lord.” Irina from Moscow.

Friday – 20

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries’ director, as he develops FEBC’s ministry in Russia and Ukraine. This summer we will open one more station in Russia. Pray for God’s wisdom for Victor, as well as strength and safety in traveling.

Saturday – 21

Please pray for the leadership team in Russia, Ukraine and Central Asia. We work hard to reach people for Christ who live in different countries of the former Soviet Union. Pray for God’s wisdom for us, as well as our families and health.

Sunday – 22

Please pray for Vlad Iurtov, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg. He is an effective follow-up evangelist who has led many people for Christ. Pray that God will bless Vlad and his work.

Monday – 23

Russia is leading the world in teen suicide. We are preparing a series of programs for Russian teenagers, produced by a Christian journalist who has years of experience working with troubled youth. Please pray that many teens will find new life in Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 24

Please continue to pray for FEBC's efforts to raise funds needed for the Evangelism Center in Kiev, Ukraine, as we need the space to produce programs, videos and "live" broadcasts from Kiev for Ukraine and Russia.

Wednesday – 25

Rev. Sergey Hohlovsky has vast experience-counseling people on and off air. Recently he experienced some health challenges. Please pray for his full recovery.

Thursday – 26

"Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord! Now I listen to your programs regularly because my soul needs it. Your advice has helped me many times in my life. Unfortunately, my husband and son are non-believers. Recently, after arguing, my son left and we do not know where he is now. Please pray that my son will come back to us and for peace in my family. Pray that my entire family will serve the Lord." Ekaterina from Russia.

Friday – 27

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, FEBC's administrative director in Slavyansk, Ukraine. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings for his work, as well as strength and safety in traveling for Eduard.

Saturday – 28

Please pray for our new FM station in Talas. It just went on the air and we trust that we will get a good audience of listeners there in the western part of Kyrgyzstan soon.

Sunday – 29

Please pray for Nurlan, FEBC manager in Kazakhstan, as he does daily broadcasts in the Kazakh language. We always pray for God's presence in those broadcasts. Our desire is to help people in their quest for the truth. We trust that through our broadcast, listeners will come to know the Lord.

Monday – 30

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, and all our broadcasters there. Pray that thousands of new listeners will receive salvation through FEBC programs on the Internet.
