

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus January 2016

Friday – 1

Happy New Year, dear friends! Thank you very much for your prayers and support throughout 2015. Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially in order to preach the Gospel to millions of Russians and Ukrainians who need Jesus.

Saturday – 2

Please pray for Rudi Wiens who is overseeing the development of FEBC's outreach in Central Asia. Pray for God's wisdom and guidance in his work and for all our staff in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan.

Sunday – 3

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray for God's blessings in his work, so that many listeners will accept Jesus in their hearts and serve Him, which is difficult to do in this Muslim country.

Monday – 4

"My name is Dmitriy; I am 25 years old. I am Catholic, but I listen to your programs regularly because I like your broadcasts very much. About one year ago, I was working on a tree when it fell accidentally and broke my back. The treatment in Ukraine and in Israel did not help. Please pray that God will heal my back." Dmitriy from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 5

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director. He is currently dealing with government officials in an attempt to preserve FEBC's station in St. Petersburg, as well as other issues. Pray that God will help him in his work and protect his health.

Wednesday – 6

"Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers. I became a Christian through your broadcasts. Please pray for my friend, Dmitriy. We grew up together in the same orphanage. I talk to him about Jesus and salvation. Please pray that he will come with me to church and accept Jesus into his heart." Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 7

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, and all of our broadcasters there. Pray that God will bless their programs. Pray, too, that many listeners will accept Jesus through our broadcasts in St. Petersburg. Also, pray for their families.

Friday – 8

Please pray for Ludmila Aleksandrova, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg. She became ill and doctors cannot determine the cause of her ill health. Pray for wisdom for doctors and for Ludmila's healing.

Saturday – 9

Please pray for 2016 to be a blessed and successful year for FEBC's ministry in Russia, Ukraine and other countries in this part of the world. Pray that God will open new opportunities to reach more people for Jesus.

Sunday – 10

Please pray for Dr. Victor Akhterov, FEBC-RM's director, as he is planning to travel extensively throughout Russia and Ukraine in January. Please pray especially for the programming seminar planned in Kiev, Ukraine, which Victor will conduct. Many key programmers will be sharing their experiences.

Monday – 11

Please pray for two new people joining FEBC-Russia in January. Pastor Oleg will produce programs that explain the Bible for non-believers. Leonid, a journalist and long-time supporter of the ministry, will be helping promote FEBC-Russia online.

Tuesday – 12

“I minister to blind people, and your broadcasts are the best way to bring them the Good News. Thank you, friends, for your programs that transform listeners' lives. Several people already have accepted Jesus. Please pray that many of these blind people will be saved.” Andrey from Chernivtsi, Ukraine.

Wednesday – 13

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow, and his daily program, Great Day, that is very popular and helps listeners learn about Jesus. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's work and his family: they have four children. Pray that all of them will serve the Lord.

Thursday – 14

“I am not a Christian, but I like to listen to your broadcasts. My wife comes home at 3 or 4 AM almost every day, and I am tired of it. I do not know what to do and how to save our marriage. Please pray for us.” Misha from Moscow.

Friday – 15

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, a new FEBC co-worker in Kiev, Ukraine. Evgeny is responsible for programming in the Ukrainian language. Pray that the Gospel of Jesus Christ will change many listeners' lives, especially at this difficult time for Ukraine.

Saturday – 16

“Please pray for my brother who has been suffering from sleeplessness for a long time. Pray that God will fully restore his health.” Lyudmila from Ukraine.

Sunday – 17

Today is FEBC Day of Prayer. Let's seek God and His counsel in all things. Let's ask God to make the harvest of souls greater in 2016, so that more lives will be transformed through the Good News of Jesus Christ. Let's ask God to protect the health and safety of FEBC staff. Let's ask God to help us keep our eyes on Him during these turbulent times when terrorism, persecution, natural disasters and disease are on the rise.

Monday – 18

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord. I am 50, and I am not a strong believer. I need God's help in my spiritual life. Please pray that I will be strong in the Lord.” Vitaliy from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 19

“Dear friends, because of your broadcasts, I became a Christian. Thank you very much for your wonderful programs! Please pray that my husband and daughter will come to know the Lord, too. I want our family to serve the Lord together.” Irina from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Wednesday – 20

Please pray for Ulanbek, who oversees the Kyrgyz broadcasts and trains the talk-show hosts in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will bless his work in this Muslim country and for his family: Ulanbek and his wife have four children.

Thursday – 21

“I am your new listener, and I like your programs very much. I have already repented of all my sins and accepted Jesus into my heart. Thank you, friends, for your amazing work for the Lord! Please pray that God will set free my husband, daughter and grandson from alcoholism.” Anonymous from Ukraine.

Friday – 22

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine. Pray that God will bless his work, so that many listeners will find freedom in Christ through FEBC broadcasts, especially at this difficult time for the country. Also, pray for Viktor's family: Viktor and his wife Tamara have two children and six grandchildren.

Saturday – 23

Please pray for Elena from Slavyansk, Ukraine. Her children, who listen to FEBC broadcasts regularly, called the studio and asked us to pray for their mom. She is suffering from pain and hemorrhaging. Pray that God will heal Elena.

Sunday – 24

Please pray for Elena Bakanova, FEBC's programmer in Kiev, Ukraine, as she is recording interviews with the most influential Christians in the country. Pray that many listeners will hear the Good News and accept Jesus through Elena's programs.

Monday – 25

"I listen to your broadcasts with my neighbor. We never miss a program because we like it very much. Even though we do not understand many things, we learn a lot from your broadcasts. Our lives have been changed, and now we want to live as Jesus teaches us. Soon we will call you with our questions. Thank you very much for your wonderful sermons!" Maria from Chernivtsi, Ukraine.

Tuesday – 26

"I want to tell you that I do not believe in God and in miracles. I found your broadcasts accidently on the Internet. You guys are smart and intelligent, and I was listening to you with pleasure. However, I do not understand you. How can you believe in God and eternal life? This is absurd! I am afraid I will listen to your broadcasts again, because it is interesting." Anonymous from Moscow. Please pray that he will continue to listen to FEBC broadcasts and become a believer.

Wednesday – 27

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, director of FEBC Russian Ministries, as he is leading the efforts to make the ministry more agile and effective in the face of continuous political and economic tensions in Russia and Ukraine. Our bottom goal is to reach more people for Jesus using the most appropriate tools.

Thursday – 28

"I am a Muslim and I listen to you on the Internet. You says that Jesus Christ is a God, but He is not Allah. Then who is Allah? Is he God or not? There is the Bible and the Koran, but how can we find out which book is veritable?" Pavel from Moscow. Please pray that God will help Pavel understand that we receive salvation through Jesus and for him to accept Jesus as his personal Savior.

Friday – 29

Liliya from Ukraine listens to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet. Recently, she lost her loved ones and needs our prayers. Please pray that God will give her comfort and strength.

Saturday – 30

Please pray for Irina Chernova, FEBC programmer in Moscow. Pray that God will give her wisdom and use her programs to touch and transform listeners' lives. Also, pray that God will bless Irina's life.

Sunday – 31

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts and prayers. We are Christians, but there is a problem in our family. My wife and I very often disagree: we have different opinions on important family issues. Please pray that God will help us and bless our family.” Anonymous from Ukraine.
