

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus June 2016

Wednesday – 1

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, and his team, as they use new technologies to reach people for Jesus: social media, smart phones apps, and new online broadcast tools that are reaching hundreds of thousands. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom in their work.

Thursday – 2

"Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts that I listen to on the Internet. Because of your sermons, I became a Christian and committed my life to Jesus. My husband is a non-believer and he turned me out of our house. For several days I will live in my friend's house and then on the street. Please pray for my husband and me. Pray that he will repent of his sins and become a believer. Pray that God will save our marriage." Svetlana from St. Petersburg.

Friday – 3

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will bless his work, so that many listeners will accept Jesus Christ as their Savior in this Muslim country. Also, pray for his family: they are expecting their second child.

Saturday – 4

"I got divorced one year ago. Now, listening to your broadcasts, I regret this decision because I understand that I was wrong many times. I want to return to my wife but I do not know what to say. On the one hand, I want to apologize to my wife, but on the other, I am afraid to talk to her; my pride stands in the way. Please help me through your prayers." Isaak from Kyrgyzstan.

Please pray that Isaak will accept Jesus into his heart, for his sake and the sake of his family.

Sunday – 5

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. His daily program Great Day is very popular and many listeners have found freedom in Christ through it. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's programs and his family: they have four children.

Monday – 6

Please continue to pray that the Ukrainian government will issue new licenses for FEBC to broadcast into key cities in this country, especially in the east, where people are suffering due to the war. More than ever, they need to hear the Word of God.

Tuesday – 7

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station. Pray for God's blessings in his work and for safety, as he travels to the war zone to distribute radios and other items to assist people. Also, pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Wednesday – 8

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord! I am so glad that I serve Him now and praise His name. Please pray for my son who needs salvation. Pray that he will repent of his sins and accept Jesus Christ as His Savior. I believe in the power of prayer.” Galina from Ukraine.

Thursday – 9

Please continue to pray for FEBC's four FM stations in Russia, that they will be protected from government intervention. Also, pray that we will be able to build more FM stations in smaller cities throughout Russia.

Friday – 10

“Please pray for my sister. During the Soviet regime, she was persecuted for her faith. This is why I am asking you to pray for her health. Pray that God will heal her heart, give her strength and bless her life.” Ludmila from Ukraine.

Saturday – 11

Please pray for Oleg Bindasov, FEBC manager in Moscow, and his team. Pray for God's blessings in their work, so that many people will come to faith in God through FEBC's ministry in this city.

Sunday – 12

Please continue to pray for the financial stability of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of your generous support and prayers, many non-believers have received freedom in Christ and accepted His love. Pray that God will bless us financially, so we can continue to preach His Word to those who need salvation.

Monday – 13

“Please pray for my father who became ill with cancer. Pray that he will repent of his sins and accept Jesus as his Savior. He needs salvation and healing.”
Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Tuesday – 14

Please continue to pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director, as he is incorporating new technologies into our ministry. Pray for God's blessings in his work and his family.

Wednesday – 15

Please continue to pray for our broadcast centers in St. Petersburg and Moscow, as they produce a 24/7 stream of programs available on the Internet, smart phone apps, satellite network, and four FM stations in Russia. Pray for God's blessings on our staff and their families.

Thursday – 16

“Thank you, friends, for your programs that led me to the Lord! I liked your advice about reading specific sections of the Bible when we face problems. It works! For example, I repeat verses and read Psalms, which give me good results! I am a new Christian and I need to learn more and more from the Bible. Your programs help me do this. Thank you!” A Facebook letter from Vladimir of Moscow. Pray that Vladimir will be strong in his faith.

Friday – 17

Please continue to pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he leads his team through a major restructuring plan. Due to the government's forced closing, they are turning away from AM broadcasting and using new technologies to a much greater extent. Pray that we will be successful in this, so that many listeners in Russia will come to faith in God.

Saturday – 18

Please pray for Nikolay from Russia. He spent many years in prison and was later homeless, but now he has begun listening to FEBC broadcasts and has made a decision to serve the Lord. Pray that Nikolay will repent of his sins and accept Jesus as his Savior.

Sunday – 19

“I have been looking for a job for a long time and have been asking God's help, but He doesn't help me. Why? Please pray that God will help me find a good job. I am your new listener.” Oleg from Moscow.

Monday – 20

Please pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC's senior broadcaster in Moscow. Pray for God's hand upon Oleg, as we transition to a new ministry model, moving from AM broadcasting to evolving opportunities, using online broadcasts and smart phone apps.

Tuesday – 21

“Because of your broadcasts, I became a Christian. Thank you! I have learned a lot from your programs and used it in my life. Unfortunately, my friend, Sasha, is not a believer. She started to steal everything she can, especially money. Please pray that Satan will stop ruining her life and God will save her soul. Pray that she will find freedom In Jesus.” Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Wednesday – 22

Please pray for Aleksandr's parents from St. Petersburg. Aleksandr was killed by a car and is now with the Lord. He was a Christian, but his parents are not. Pray that God will give them comfort and strength and draw them to Himself.

Thursday – 23

Please pray for Rudi Wiens as he travels to Almaty and Bishkek. Rudi needs God's wisdom in working with the local leadership of FEBC radio ministry there. We are praising God for the new FM frequency we just received in Southern Kyrgyzstan.

Friday – 24

Please pray for Ruslan who has joined our team in Almaty. Ruslan has been a devoted follower of Christ for a number of years and he teaches political science at a local university. We have great hopes for Ruslan, as he is starting a local talk show and will help us with other projects.

Saturday – 25

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and his staff. Pray that God will protect them and bless their work, so that many listeners will hear the Good News, especially at this difficult time for the country.

Sunday – 26

Please pray for Maksim, the minister of a Christian rehab center in St. Petersburg. He was involved in a serious car accident. Pray for God's healing for Maksim.

Monday – 27

Please pray for Mikhail, the station manager in Norilsk, northern Russia. Pray that many listeners will come to know Christ in this city and follow Him. Also, pray for Mikhail as he travels throughout Russia conducting evangelistic meetings. Pray for good health and safe travels for Mikhail.

Tuesday – 28

“Good evening! I just listened to your program on the Internet. You said that God loves us, but I do not feel it. I want to feel God's love in my life; I want God to love me. Please pray for me.” Svetlana from Moscow.

Wednesday – 29

Please pray for Ulanbek, our Kyrgyz program director. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom in his work. Also, pray for his family: Ulanbek and his wife, Asyl, have three young children.

Thursday – 30

Please pray for Ainura in Bishkek who is doing a daily morning program on our FM network there. Her husband passed away some time ago due to an illness. In spite of being a widow and a single mother, she radiates true joy in Christ. It is a blessing to listen to her.
