

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus November 2017

Wednesday – 1

Please pray for Vadim Burlaka, our new manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine. Recently, he lost his father, Grigory Burlaka, who was FEBC manager in Chernovtsy for many years. Grigory went to be with the Lord at the age of 67. Pray for comfort for the entire family and for God's blessings upon Vadim and his staff.

Thursday – 2

Please pray for FEBC's Russian and Ukrainian leadership teams meetings that are planned for the first part of November in Kiev, Ukraine. They will be working on updating strategic plans for both countries in order to be efficient, effective and mission-focused.

Friday – 3

Please pray for Asyl, wife of our Kyrgyz program director, Ulanbek. Asyl has gone through a number of surgeries. Because of the medication, her immune system has weakened. Please pray that God will miraculously build her immune system up. Asyl and Ulanbek are raising a teenage daughter and two younger sons.

Saturday – 4

"My parents got divorce when I was only one year old. My stepfather raised me. Now, my father wants to have relationship with me but I can't forgive him. Recently, I began to listen to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet and you say that we have to forgive people. I do not know how I can do this. If it is really God's will, I have to do this. Please pray for me." Valentina from St. Petersburg.

Sunday – 5

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, FEBC's administrative director in Slavyansk, Ukraine. Pray that God will bless his work in Slavyansk, Kramatorsk, Odessa and Shastya so that many non-believers will accept Jesus, especially during wartime. Also, pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Monday – 6

"Hello! I am your new Internet listener and I like your broadcasts very much! There are different programs for everybody on FEBC Christian radio. I like to listen to programs on families, prayers, the spirit and I like your advice for my life. Please pray for my family. Even though we have three little children, my husband wants to divorce me. Pray that God will help us to save our marriage." Anastasia from Moscow.

Tuesday – 7

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he develops FEBC's ministry in Russia and Ukraine. We thank God for the new five FM stations in Ukraine. Pray that God will give Victor wisdom and guidance in his work, so that many non-believers will find real freedom in Christ through FEBC broadcasts in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for strength and stamina for Victor and for safety in traveling.

Wednesday – 8

“Dear brothers and sisters, thank you very much for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord! I listen to you regularly and receive comfort and strength from your programs. I am so glad that I came to faith in God and now I serve Him. I want to follow Jesus for the rest of my life because I love my Savior. Unfortunately, my husband still is a non-believer. My two sons are drug addicts. My daughter underwent a serious surgery and she is a non-believer, too. Please pray for salvation for my family.” Galina from Ukraine.

Thursday – 9

Please pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC's senior broadcaster in Moscow. Oleg works with non-believing students from Moscow and St. Petersburg universities. He invites them to FEBC's studio to participate in the program. They read the Bible on the air and express their opinions. Many young listeners have come to faith in God through Oleg's broadcasts. Pray that God will continue to bless his programs.

Friday – 10

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart is popular and helps listeners understand God's love. Pray that many people will become believers through Natalia's broadcasts and follow the Lord. Also, pray that God will provide good health for her.

Saturday – 11

Please pray for FEBC's efforts to raise funds for the broadcast center in Kiev, Ukraine. It will serve as evangelism center not only for Ukraine, but also for the entire region.

Sunday – 12

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC's manager in St. Petersburg, and his staff, as they use social media and online broadcast tools to reach hundreds of thousands listeners. Many young people have come to faith in God through our broadcasts on the Internet. Pray that God will continue to bless their programs and listeners.

Monday – 13

Please continue to pray for the financial support of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of you, many people have received salvation in Jesus Christ and follow Him. Pray that God will bless us financially so we can continue to preach the Gospel to millions who need Jesus.

Tuesday – 14

Zhanna from Russia asked us to pray for her a 7-year old adopted daughter. The girl falls into a trance and teachers do not want her to be in school. Doctors say that she was born with this illness. Please pray that God will heal her.

Wednesday – 15

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. For many years, Evgeny talked to thousands about salvation through Jesus Christ in his daily program Great Day. He is a good psychologist and helps people to solve their problems. Many of his listeners have become Christians and follow Jesus. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's programs and his family. They have four children.

Thursday – 16

"I am not a Christian, but I like to listen to your broadcasts. I believe that God will help me in my life. I have two children and live with my mother in the same house. My mom hates me because she says I took away her youth and destroyed her life because in my childhood, I was getting sick frequently. There is no peace in our house. Please pray that God will change my mom's heart and bless our family. And thank you very much for your amazing programs that I will continue to listen." Inna from St. Petersburg. Please pray that Inna and her mother will accept Jesus and serve Him.

Friday – 17

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director, as he has many ministry responsibilities in Russia and Ukraine. Pray that God will bless Oleg's work and provide good health for him.

Saturday – 18

"Listening to your broadcasts, I repented of my sins and accepted Jesus into my heart! Now I know: if you really believe in Jesus Christ, you receive answers to your questions and life becomes much easier and better. You can't imagine how I am happy after prayer and my soul sings praise to the Lord! (Yes, thanks to you, I can pray now!) Thank you friends, for your amazing programs! Listening to you today, my faith became stronger." Elena from Russia.

Sunday – 19

Please pray for Rudi Wiens, who is overseeing FEBC's ministry in Central Asia, and his staff. Pray that God will bless all programs and talk shows in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan, so many Muslims in these countries will accept Jesus.

Monday – 20

Please pray for Laura in Almaty, who is the office manager and does regular broadcast in Kazakhstan. Her own testimony helps her to reach out non-believers, especially Kazakh women who go through many challenges of life.

Tuesday – 21

"My husband is a gambler. He does not see me and my children, but only his 'toys'. Listening to your programs on the Internet, I understood how I could help my husband and keep my family stronger. Thank you very much for your advice! I will continue to listen to your broadcasts that help me in my life." Kseniya from Russia.

Wednesday – 22

Please pray for Igor Popov, FEBC-Moscow's broadcaster as he is bringing the Gospel to the families who live with disabled children. Pray that many will find comfort and strength in Jesus Christ.

Thursday – 23

Happy Thanksgiving, dear Friends! Let us thank God for His mercy and blessings upon all of us. We are giving thanks for thousands listeners who found freedom in Christ through FEBC broadcasts in this year. Glory to be to the Lord!

Friday – 24

“Thank you very much for your wonderful programs that I listen to on the Internet! You were right: without forgiveness, we can’t build a good family. It was very difficult for me to forgive my father, but I did it! Will continue to listen to your useful programs.” Diana from Russia. Please pray that Diana will accept Jesus as her Savior.

Saturday – 25

Please pray for Irina, one of FEBC’s supporter for a long time. Pray that God will provide good health for Irina and bless her family financially.

Sunday – 26

Please pray for Ardak in Almaty. Ardak is our main IT specialist, taking care of the broadcast and studio equipment. Now, we work on updating the web page and live streaming of our broadcast.

Monday – 27

“Because of your amazing broadcasts, I became a Christian! Thank you, friends, for your programs that I like to listen to every day and receive God’s blessings from your preaching and teaching. Listening to you, I realized how much I need to learn from God’s Word to be a good child of God. Unfortunately, my husband and two sons are non-believers. I cry to God for them because I love them very much and I want them to serve the Lord. Please pray that instead of drinking, they will start to listen to FEBC broadcasts and become believers.” Nadezhda from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 28

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC’s director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine and his staff. Pray that God will bless their programs, so that many non-believers will come to faith in God during this difficult time for the country. Please continue to pray for peace for Ukraine.

Wednesday – 29

“Hello, friends! I just began to listen to you on the Internet. I want to thank psychologists who gave me a good advice through your program. Looks like, I was wrong and I have to change my behavior instead of blame my husband. Thanks to you, I understand it now. I will continue to listen to your broadcasts because it helps me in my life.” Tatiana from Moscow. Please pray that Tatiana and her husband will come to faith in God.

Thursday – 30

Please pray for Mirlan, one of our key broadcasters in Bishkek. He and his wife, Aizat, are expecting their first child by the end of the year. They are praying for good health during the rest of the pregnancy and healthy birth.
